

facts

SB

Hometown: Cabot, Arkansas
Family: Married to Rodney Burnett, two daughters Allie and Marlee
Musical Idiom: Southern Gospel/Inspirational

DISCOGRAPHY

Family Reunion (2006)
Sondra (2002)
Give It Up, Hymns for Him (2001)
In the Final Hour (1999)

RADIO RELEASES

"Everything I Wanted"
"I Can Tell You the Time"
"It's Me Again Lord"
"It's Alright"

APPEARANCES

- Co-hosted and performed at the 2006 SGN Music Awards Celebration in Nashville, TN
- Has appeared on Dennis Swanberg's national television show Swan's Place
- Has shared the stage with artists such as the the Crabb Family, Isaacs, Karen Peck & New River, Booth Brothers, Nelons, Pfeifers, Michael English, Woody Wright, Melody Boys, Palmetto State Quartet, Gospel Enforcers, LordSong, Journeymen Quartet, Hope's Call, and more
- Has performed at the 2004 SouthernGospelNews.com Convention and 6th Annual Gospel Music Fan Festival

FACTS

- Charted singles on Singing News Top 40, US Gospel News Top 100, SouthernGospelNews.com Top 40 Weekly Chart, and European Gospel Charts
- Nominated for Female Southern Gospel Artist of the Year in the 2005 American Christian Music Awards
- Nominated for three SGN Music Awards in 2003, including Breakthrough Artist of the Year
- Nashville regional winner of the AGMA's Southern Gospel Song of 2002
- Sondra project features guest appearances and background vocals from Richard Sterban and the late Noel Fox (Oak Ridge Boys), Judy Martin Hess (The Martins), Michael English, and Ponder, Sykes & Wright
- Was featured on New Project Celebration and A Closer Look programming on the Solid Gospel Radio Network
- Wrote or co-wrote 19 of the 21 songs on her first two recordings
- Songs in regular rotation on Solid Gospel Radio Network, SGLive365.com, SouthernSpinRadio.com, and many more high profile stations
- The song "Good-bye" is used by several hospitals to minister and comfort families in the loss of a child
- Ministers in testimony and humor at Women's Ministry events
- Was raised in a minister's home and has traveled in the ministry all her life
- Loves Coca-Cola, Sugar Babies and McDonald's French Fries
- Sees her music not as the focal point, but as the key to unlock the door to minister to someone's life