

references

I am amazed at Sondra's talent and her speaking. I tried to talk to her after her seminar on depression but I couldn't get the words out. I was so moved.

--Name Withheld

Having Sondra Burnett in our church was a real blessing. She ministered to our whole church in a down to earth and refreshing way. It was very obvious to all the church that Sondra has a heart to serve the Lord that swells up in beautiful music.

--Mitchell Jackson

Miner Baptist Church
Sikeston, MO

Sondra continues to be a vessel utilized by our Lord to proclaim the love of Jesus. Her testimony is touching, her ministry through song is powerful.

--Randy Monroe

Trinity Baptist Church
Lake Charles, LA

Sondra is one of those rare artist that has been graced to balance a family life with a growing and thriving music ministry. What is even more amazing is the stride that she appears to be hitting in her calling as many are starting to wind down. Her songs are heartfelt and her professionalism makes her joy a joy with which to work. Any church can offer Sondra to their congregation with confidence and faith that hearts will be touched and moved.

--David Bunker, Former A&R Director of Word Music

Chicago, IL